69th Macau Grand Prix and Activities

The Guia Circuit will see the return of the 54th Macau Motorcycle Grand Prix, along with six races sponsored by major integrated tourism and leisure companies, including Sands China Formula 4 Macau Grand Prix; Galaxy Entertainment Macau GT Cup; Wynn Macau Guia Race; MGM Macau Touring Car Cup; Melco Greater Bay Area GT Cup; and SJM Macau Roadsport Challenge. The event brings together a wide range of drivers to race at top speed on the Guia Circuit. During the races, the Grand Prix is again shown on large screens in various parts of Macao and is also broadcast live or delayed by a variety of different TV stations and broadcasting organisations covering various countries and regions around the world.

Diverse activities are also held to keep the atmosphere lively. The 69th Macau Grand Prix - Opening Ceremony and Car Show is held to showcase many of the vehicles that will be racing this year. There is also a sales booth for cultural and creative products with the theme of Grand Prix racing. The Grand Prix-themed Creative Art Activity Exhibition is also held to promote racing culture in Macao, allowing visitors to understand and experience the history and culture of the Macau Grand Prix from multiple perspectives.

Feast of Saint Martinho

The Feast of Saint Martinho (Festival das Castanhas) is a traditional festival highly valued by the Macanese community in Macao and is listed on the List of Intangible Cultural Heritage of Macao. The festival honours Saint Martinho, a Catholic bishop Saint from the 4th century, who is renowned for his kind act of “dividing his cloak to share with a beggar”. The legend is said to have happened during the autumn and winter seasons when the wine is produced and the chestnut harvest is abundant. Thus, the feast with wine and chestnuts known as the “Christmas festival” is celebrated on 11th November.

In order to preserve and promote the traditional festival, this event is organised in the form of a carnival. Visitors can learn about the unique local Macanese culture with Macanese cuisine and chestnut-related food stalls, stage performances, photo booths and games at the carnival.

Providing visitors with Macao Grand Prix-related knowledge, entertainment, leisure and learning elements, the four-storey Macao Grand Prix Museum recently introduce a 360-degree panoramic view (https://mgpm.macaotourism.gov.mo/vrtours) for a virtual online tour, bringing to life the whole Museum in a three-dimensional, 360-degree panorama before the eyes of audiences.

The Museum continues to improve its facilities, including the new “Formula 3 simulator” provides an interactive, close-to-reality racing experience that captivates Grand Prix fans. There is also an expanded AR tour in Memory Lane with “The Classic Start” experience and the “I Am a Racer” interactive game.

The Grand Prix themed café Another Coffee next to the museum offers a variety of food and beverages with Grand Prix elements, as well as a selection of cultural and creative products from the original themed IP “Racing Cat”.

Accidentally Wes Anderson x Macao Art Exhibition - Exploration of Color Aesthetics in Architecture

Characterised by symmetrical compositions, distinctive color palettes, and idiosyncratic settings, renowned film director Wes Anderson's iconic aesthetic has inspired photographers around the world to experiment with capturing the Anderson aesthetic themselves. His fan Wally Koval created an Instagram account called Accidentally Wes Anderson (AWA) in 2017 to share beautiful photographs and idiosyncratic stories of real-life places that look as though they could have been plucked from the screen of a Wes Anderson film. This exhibition shares a selection of photos from the surrounding region of Macao, reminding visitors that there is beauty, charm and history all around them.
