AT FULL GALLOP INTO THE LUNAR NEW YEAR

The arrival in Macao of the Year of the Horse promises colour, joy, and high-spirited celebrations

Macao is welcoming the Lunar New Year at full sprint, with a programme of events to delight visitors and energise the city throughout February. Leading the festivities is the Parade for Celebration of the Year of the Horse (Feb 19th and 28th), promising a carnival atmosphere across key districts. The 2026 Chinese New Year Drones and Fireworks Displays (Feb 19th, 23rd and Mar 3rd) are sure to fill the skyline with awesome spectacle, while the Community Roadshow (Feb 17th-18th) brings the seasonal spirit directly to local neighbourhoods. The much-anticipated Chinese New Year Market 2026 (Feb 10th-17th) offers a showcase of traditional goods, decorations and festive treats. Beyond the Lunar New Year traditions, Macao's cultural calendar is as packed as ever. Operation Oops! A Musical (until Feb 2nd) delivers light-hearted entertainment, while pop fans can look forward to major live performances, including WESTLIFE: A GALA EVENING IN MACAO (Feb 7th) and Silence Wang 2026 "Rise of Romance" World Tour – Macau (Feb 27th – Mar 1st). With festivities abounding on its streets, in its skies, and on performance stages, February in Macao means the best-possible introduction to the Year of the Horse!

Macao Grand Prix Museum

The Macao Grand Prix Museum celebrates the city’s iconic motorsport event, and covers four floors across 16,000 square metres. Attractions range from interactive games to top-notch multimedia installations, a model of the Guia Circuit with 3D projection mapping, and lifelike wax figures of famous racing drivers, produced by the renowned Madame Tussauds Hong Kong. There is also a LEGO® 1:1 scale model of a Formula 3 race car, with more than 300,000 LEGO® bricks. The Museum is celebrating Chinese New Year by offering a “Full Horsepower Fortune Boost” activity from February 17th to 23rd. Highlights of that include a “Spring Couplets Rolling Station” and a “Red Envelopes Rolling Station”, integrating traditional Chinese culture with motor-racing elements. Visitors can try their hand at writing race car-themed poetry couplets and making their own racing-red envelopes. Running until February 23rd, “A Racing Legacy – SJM Theodore Racing Interactive Exhibition” provides insights into the journeys of Theodore Racing professional racers, the roles within a racing team, and the partnership between SJM and Macao’s legendary racing team. Until March 2nd, the Museum is also hosting “Macao Grand Prix Museum X The Pirelli Legend” – Racing Tyres Theme Exhibition, presenting a variety of motorsport tyre models produced by the Italian manufacturer.

Coming in March...

March dispels Macao’s winter glam, via a calendar packed with high-energy sporting events, major cultural celebrations and headline concerts. Runners are the stars in the 2026 Sands China Macao International 10K (Mar 15th), a popular road race, taking a scenic route around Macao peninsula and Taipa. Top-class table tennis is served up later in the month, at the ITTF Men’s and Women’s World Cup Macao 2026 (Mar 30th – Apr 5th). The spiritual as well as the sporting is celebrated, with traditional culture firmly at the centre of the city’s life. Festivities for the Birth of You Tei (Mar 20th), the God of the Earth, will be marked at temples across Macao. March also highlights the city’s role as a hub for “green” ideas and action. The Macao International Environmental Co-operation Forum and Exhibition (Mar 26th-28th) continues to attract international participants keen to explore emerging environmental trends and solutions to eco-challenges. On the music beat, the city is hosting some of the region’s most-anticipated live shows, including 2025–26 aespa LIVE TOUR – SYNK: aeXIS LINE – in MACAU (Mar 7th-8th) and the final performance of Silence Wang 2026 “Rise Of Romance” World Tour – Macau (Mar 1st), marking the end of a three-day mini-residence. Thanks to happenings at street level, in arenas and cultural venues, March is a perfect example of Macao’s mix of international spectacle and local tradition!
