A FAST TRACK TO FEASTS AND FUN

Engines rev, basslines echo, and steam rises – Macao is anything but "autumn-mellow" in November

As the seasons slide, Macao entertainment stays at full-throttle, with a November schedule of top-tier sport, international arts, and festive nights out.

A headliner is the 73rd Macau Grand Prix meeting (Nov 19th-22nd). It remains one of motorsport's most demanding street-track events, bringing four days of pure speed and adrenaline to the Guia Circuit.

As fuel tanks fill and engines roar, Macao's cultural calendar is also fully revved. The 38th Macao International Music Festival (until Nov 29th) explores cross-cultural connections under the theme "Silk Resonances", while the hush! Beach Concerts x Urban Sports Wellfest 2026 (Nov 14th-15th) pairs beachfront live music with sessions for personal fitness and wellbeing.

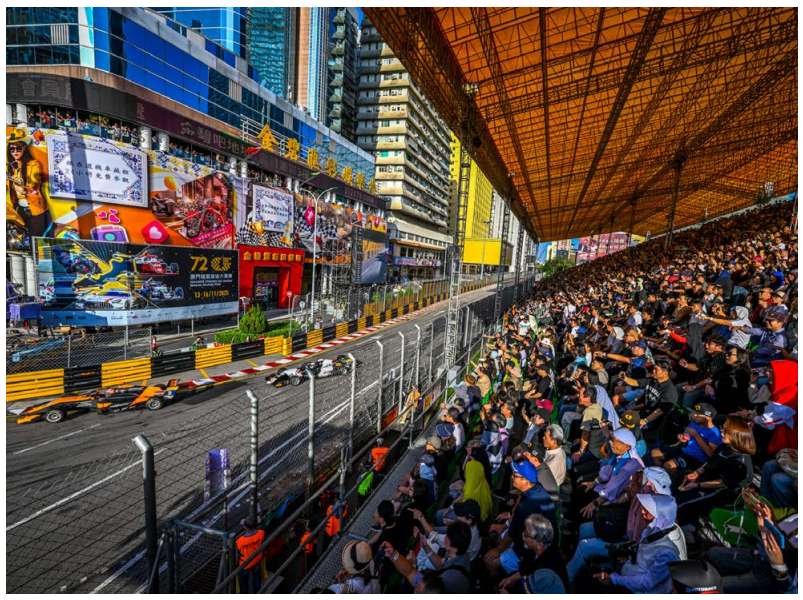

Food and drink take centre stage later in the month. Spanning more than two weeks, the 26th Macau Food Festival (Nov 20th – Dec 6th) presents local and international dishes in an expansive, open-air dining setting. Those fancy a cold beer with friends, can toast the final days of Cheers, Macau! Oktoberfest Macau at MGM 2026 (until Nov 8th).

Visiting Macao in November means catching one of the busiest, liveliest months in the calendar. Take a front-row seat for some of the very best experiences the city has to offer!

NOV 19TH-22ND

73rd Macau Grand Prix

It's one of the city's most exhilarating annual events. The Macau Grand Prix meeting races back into town, with this year's edition featuring seven races. Get revved up for contests including the FIA FR World Cup; the Macau GT Cup – FIA GT World Cup; and the Macau Guia Race – Kumho FIA TCR World Tour Event of Macau. Also make sure not to miss the highlight moments of the Macau Formula 4 Race – FIA F4 World Cup; the Macau Motorcycle Grand Prix – 58th Edition; the Greater Bay Area GT Cup (GT4); and the Macau Roadsport Challenge.

38th Macao International Music Festival

World-renowned musicians and rising stars come together for this year's Macao International Music Festival, presenting 10 programmes spanning Chinese and Western opera, contemporary masterpieces, and grand symphonic concerts. Inspired by the spirit of the Maritime Silk Road, the theme "Silk Resonances" gives almost two months of top-tier performances a rich cultural and historical context. Beyond the main stages, the festival reaches into neighbourhoods and other spaces with "Floating Notes Across the City" – a series of 12 activities held across 44 individual sessions. The line-up includes surprise pop-up performances, artist talks, backstage tours, film screenings, and charity events.

Coming in December...

December in Macao is packed with festivities, with a vibrant holiday spirit wrapped in sparkling lights.

Those arriving at the start of the month should make room for the 26th Macau Food Festival (until Dec 6th). The sprawling open-air event serves up everything from Macanese cuisine to delicacies from a variety of regions.

Visitors with an appetite for sports spectacle can witness thousands getting on their marks for the 2026 Galaxy Entertainment Macao International Marathon (Dec 6th). The course offers world-class endurance racing, framed by low-rise UNESCO-listed architecture and high-rise modern skylines.

Nightfall doesn't mean any drop in pace. Light Up Macao 2026 (Dec 5th – Jan 10th, 2027) sees large-scale luminous installations at multiple locations, enlivening the urban landscape from dusk until late.

Mid-month, the 27th Anniversary of the Establishment of the Macao Special Administrative Region (Dec 20th) is celebrated via a series of cultural and civic events. The festive mood carries straight over to Christmas, as street displays and Tap Seac Square's Christmas Market (Dec 18th - Jan 2nd, 2027) bring a distinct East-meets-West feel to the city.

The month wraps up on a high note with the New Year's Eve Countdown Events (Dec 31st). Live music stages feature popular acts, ticking away the final seconds to 2027.

December is month of constant excitement and entertainment, visiting Macao this season means a fond farewell to the old year in unforgettable fashion!
